

Big Mama

Big Mama came into the Sanctuary as part of a group of donkeys that had been feasting on the flower and vegetable gardens of a residential neighbourhood near St. James' Club. The home owners were not impressed and asked us to remove the donkeys. We were happy to oblige as we knew it would keep them out of trouble.