

Charley

We don't really know Charley's story. He just decided to move in with us one day a few years ago. As sometimes happens, he was waiting at the gate to get into the sanctuary when we arrived in the morning.

He's a very sweet fellow and we are happy to have him. He likes lots of affection and sometimes jostles Raven for attention.