

Daisy

Daisy and her mom, Hilda, came into the Sanctuary in March 2011.

They had been roaming in a nearby village, destroying farm crops and irrigation systems (seeking food and water). The community was getting angry. Aloof at first, Daisy is now very friendly and likes to mingle with visitors.