

July

July was born at the Donkey Sanctuary in 2008. Her mother has an old injury to one of her feet that makes her hobble, particularly when she was still carrying July in her belly.

Now, they both are happy and content in the Sanctuary especially July who loves to interact with our guests.

.