

Stevie

Stevie is a very brave fellow! He was hit by a car in town (we don't know what he was doing there) and his head injuries left him totally blind.

We call him when it's feeding time; he brays an answer and then heads toward us. He occasionally bumps into things, but otherwise manages amazingly well.