

Ushi

Ushi was only 3 months old, very thin and very ill when he arrived at the Donkey Sanctuary. It took quite a while to bring him around but he is now perfectly fine!

At first, he was allowed to eat his dinner in the back of the animal shelter away from the others – so that he could get back to a healthy weight. We still occasionally catch him walking into the shelter when we aren't looking.